“1A. Primary Objectives of the Code.---The primary objective of this Code is to enable the Courts to-

(a) deal with the cases justly and fairly;

(b) encourage parties to alternate dispute resolution procedure if it considers appropriate;

(c) save expense and time both of courts and litigants; and

(d) enforce compliance with provisions of this Code.”

3. Substitution of section 3 of Act No. V of 1908.--- In the said Act, for section 3, the following shall be substituted, namely:

“3. Subordination of courts.---For the purpose of this Code, the hierarchy and subordination of Civil Courts shall be the same as prescribed in the West Pakistan Civil Courts Ordinance, 1962 (W.P. Ordinance No. II of 1962).”

4. Substitution of section 6 of Act No. V of 1908.--- In the said Act, for section 6, the following shall be substituted, namely:

“6. Pecuniary jurisdiction.--- Save in so far as is provided for the Peshawar High Court exercising original civil jurisdiction in Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, all civil suits shall be filed in the following manner, namely:

- (a) where the amount or value of the subject matter of the suit is below rupees fifty million, the suit shall be filed in the court of Civil Judge , as may be prescribed by the High Court; and
- (b) where the amount or value of the subject matter of the suit is above rupees fifty million, the suit shall be filed in the court of District Judge, as may be prescribed by the High Courts.”.

5. Omission of section 7 of Act No. V of 1908.--- In the said Act, section 7 shall be deleted.

6. Substitution of section 26 of Act No. V of 1908.--- In the said Act, for section 26, the following shall be substituted, namely:

“26. Institution of suits through plaint or otherwise.---(1) Every suit shall be instituted by the presentation of a plaint or in such other manner as may be prescribed.

(2) On presentation of the plaint, it shall be the duty of the Court to prima facie, satisfy itself of jurisdiction, cause of action and limitation:

Provided that if the Court does not satisfy itself, it shall be bound to record reasons for doing so.

(3) The plaintiff shall, at the time, file as many copies of the plaint and accompanying documents as there are defendants to the suit to be sent along with the summons and two extra copies of the entire set for the purpose of record.

(4) It shall be duty of the Court to maintain electronic records of proceedings in suits in the manner, as may be prescribed.

Explanation:- For the purpose of this sub-section suits include any proceedings in applications, appeals, review, revision or anything incidental thereto.”.

7. Insertion of new sections 26A, 26B, 26C and 26D in the Act No. V of 1908.--- In the said Act, after section 26 as so amended, the following new sections shall be inserted, namely:

“26A. Written statement and proposed issues by the defendant.---(1) The defendant shall file written statement not later than thirty days from the date of service to him:

Provided that if the defendant fails to file written statement on the date fixed, the Court may grant an opportunity to file the same not later than fifteen days subject to payment of adjournment costs:

Provided further that if the defendant fails to file after the opportunity given under the first provision, a final opportunity may be given by the Court to file written statement not later than fifteen days subject to payment of adjournment costs after which the defendant shall lose the right of defence and the Court shall close the right to defend the case:

Provided also that the written statement may be allowed to be filed by the Court upon payment of costs to be determined by it, if the defendant through an application supported by an affidavit satisfies the Court that he had just and sufficient cause and the Court record reasons for it.

(2) The defendant shall file proposed issues along with the written statement:

Provided that if no issues are proposed by the defendant, the Court shall permit the defendant to file proposed issues not later than seven days upon payment of costs, to be determined by the Court.

(3) The defendant shall provide additional copies of written statement and of the documents annexed therewith for each of the parties and the Court.

26B. Proposed issues by the plaintiff.---The plaintiff shall file proposed issues not later than seven days from the date of receiving the written statement:

Provided that in case the plaintiff fails to file the proposed issues, the Court shall permit the plaintiff to file proposed issues not later than seven days upon payment of cost to be determined by the Court.

26C. Framing of issues, filling of list of witnesses and recording of evidence.---(1) Not later than ninety days of the institution of a suit, the Court after considering the pleadings and issues proposed by parties to the suit, shall determine the material propositions of facts and laws, which the parties are at variance and frame issues.

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (1), the Court in its discretion, as it may deem fit, may proceed to frame issues without hearing.

(3) In case issues are framed without hearing, any party, not later than seven days of the framing of issues, may file an application seeking modification of the issues, which application shall be decided within fifteen days.

(4) After framing the issues, the Court shall order the parties to file list of witnesses not later than fifteen days.

(5) If any party fails to comply with the orders of the Court in sub-section (4), a final opportunity may be given by the Court to file list of witnesses not later than fifteen days subject to payment of adjournment costs.

(6) Immediately upon framing of issues and filing of the list of witnesses, the Court shall direct the recording of evidence through Commission in the prescribed manner.

(7) For the purpose of sub-section (6) of this section, the Court shall appoint a Commission from a list of approved panel of such Commission, comprising advocates and retired judges, maintained by the Court in the prescribed manner, on such fee and terms and conditions as determined by the Court.

(8) The parties shall file affidavits as evidence of their respective witnesses, before the Commission which shall be construed to be examination-in-chief.

(9) On the affidavits in evidence, the witnesses shall be subjected to cross examination and if necessary, just and expedient, shall be subjected to re-examination followed by cross-examination or re-examination.

(10) The Commission shall record the evidence and proceedings thereof in written and audio and video recording.

(11) Not later than ninety days of the order under sub-section (6), the Commission shall finalize the recording of the evidence and submit a report in this regard to the Court along with the complete written, audio and video record of the proceeding under sub-section (10).

(12) The High Court shall frame rules for the purposes of recording of evidence through Commission, inter alia, empowering the Commission to regulate the Commission's proceedings including but not limited to allowing or disallowing questions, documents, choosing sides, extension of Commission and passing such ancillary or other orders which are necessary to carry out the functions of the Commission.

26D. Hearing of final arguments.---(1) The Court shall, after submission or closing of evidence, as the case may be, fix a date not later than fifteen days, for hearing of final arguments by parties.
