¹(a) defining what youthful offenders should be sent to Reformatory Schools, having regard to the nature of their offences or other considerations, and

(b) regulating the periods for which youthful offenders may be sent to such schools according to their ages or other considerations.

9. (1) When any Magistrate not empowered to pass an order under the last foregoing section is of opinion that a youthful offender convicted by him is a proper person to be an inmate of a Reformatory School, he may, without passing sentence, record such opinion and submit his proceedings and forward the youthful offender to the Magistrate to whom he is subordinate.

Procedure where Magistrate is not empowered to pass an order under section 8.

(2) The Magistrate to whom the proceedings are so submitted may make such farther inquiry (if any) as he may think fit and pass such sentence and order for the detention in a Reformatory School of the youthful offender, or otherwise, as he might have passed if such youthful offender had been originally tried by him.

10. The officer in charge of a prison in which a youthful offender is confined, in execution of a sentence of imprisonment, may bring him, if he has not then attained the age of fifteen years before the District Magistrate within whose jurisdiction such prison is situate; and such Magistrate may, if such youthful offender appears to be a proper person to be an inmate of a Reformatory School, direct that, instead of undergoing the residue of his sentence, he shall be sent to a Reformatory School, and there detained for a period which shall be subject to the same limitations as are prescribed by or under section 8, with reference to the period of detention thereby authorized.

Power of Magistrates to direct boys under fifteen sentenced to imprisonment to be sent to Reformatory schools.

11. (1) Before directing any youthful offender to be sent to a Reformatory School under section 8, section 9 or section 10, the Court or Magistrate shall inquire into the question of his age and, after taking such evidence (if any) as may be deemed necessary, shall record a finding thereon, stating his age as nearly as may be.

Preliminary inquiry and finding as to age of youthful offender.

(2) A similar inquiry shall be made and finding recorded by every Magistrate not empowered to pass an order under section 8 before submitting his proceedings and forwarding the youthful offender to the District Magistrate as required by section 9, sub-section (1).

12. Every youthful offender directed by a Court or Magistrate to be sent to a Reformatory School shall be sent to such Reformatory School as the ²[Provincial Government] may, by general or special order, appoint for the reception of youthful offenders so dealt with; such Court or Magistrate:

Provided that, if accommodation in a Reformatory School is not immediately available for such youthful offender, he maybe detained in the juvenile ward or such other suitable part of a prison as the ¹[Provincial Government] may direct—

- (a) until he can be sent to a Reformatory School, or
- (b) until the term of his original sentence expires, whichever event may first happen. Should the term of his original sentence first expire, he shall thereupon be released, but should he be sent to a Reformatory School, then the period of detention previously undergone shall be treated as detention in a Reformatory School.

13. (1) If at any time after a youthful offender has been sent to Reformatory School it appears to the Committee of Visitors or Board of Management, as the case may be, that the age of such youthful offender has been under stated in the order for detention, and that he will attain the age of eighteen years before the expiration of the period for which he has been ordered to be detained, they shall report the case for the orders of the ²[Provincial Government].

Persons found to be over eighteen years not to be detained in Reformatory Schools.

(2) No person shall be detained in a Reformatory School after he has been found by the ³[Provincial Government] to have attained the age of eighteen years.

14. The ⁴[Provincial Government] may at any rime order any youthful offender—

Discharge or removal by order of Government.

- (a) to be discharged from a Reformatory School;
- (b) to be removed from one Reformatory School to another such school situate within the territories subject to such Government: Provided that the whole period of his detention in a Reformatory School shall not be increased by such removal.

⁵[15. The Provincial Governments of any two Provinces may after mutual agreement, generally or specially, notify in their respective Official Gazettes that any Reformatory School situated in one of the Provinces shall be available for the reception of youthful offenders directed to be sent to a Reformatory School by any Court or Magistrate in the other Province and may thereupon make provision for the

16. Nothing contained in the ¹Code of Criminal procedure, 1882, shall be construed to authorize any Court or Magistrate to alter or reverse in appeal or revision any order passed with respect to the age of a youthful offender or the substitution of an order for detention in a Reformatory School for transportation or imprisonment.

Certain orders not subject to appeal or revision.

17. (1) For the control and management of every Reformatory School the ²[Provincial Government] shall appoint either (a) a Superintendent and a Committee of Visitors, or (b) a Board of Management.

Appointment of Superintendent and Committee of Visitors Board of Management

(2) Every Committee and every Board so appointed must consist of not less than five persons. ³[* *]

(3) The ⁴[Provincial Government] may suspend or remove any Superintendent or any Member of a Committee or Board so appointed.

18. (I) Every Superintendent so appointed may, with the sanction of the Committee, by license under his hand, permit any youthful offender sent to a Reformatory School, who has attained the age of fourteen years, to live under the charge of any trust-worthy and respectable person named in the license, or any officer of Government or of a Municipality, being an employer of labour and willing to receive and take charge of him, on the condition that the employer shall keep such youthful offender employed at some trade, occupation or calling.

Superintendent may license youthful offenders to employers of labour.

(2) The License shall be in force for three months and no longer, but may, at any time and time to time until the expiration of the period for which the youthful offender has been directed to be detained, be renewed for three months at a time.

19. The license shall be cancelled at the desire of the employer named in the license.

Cancellation of license.

20. if during the term of the license the employer named therein dies, or ceased from business or to employ labour, or the period for which the youthful offender has been directed to be detained in the Reformatory School expires, the license shall thereupon cease and determine.

22. (1) The Superintendent of a Reformatory School shall be deemed to be the guardian of every youthful offender detained in such school, within the meaning of ¹Act No. XIX of 1850 (concerning the binding of apprentices).

Superintendent to be deemed guardian of youthful offenders.

(2) If it appears to the Superintendent that any youthful offender licensed under section 18 has behaved well during one or more periods of his license, the Superintendent may, with the sanction of the Committee, apprentice him under the provisions of the said Act, and on such apprenticeship the right to detain such youthful offender in a Reformatory School shall cease, and the unexpired term(if any) of his sentence shall be cancelled.

Power to apprentice youthful offenders.

23. (I) Every Committee of Visitors appointed under section 17 for a Reformatory School shall, at least once in every month—

Duties of Committee of Visitors.

- (a) visit the school, to hear complaints and see that the requirements of section 6 have been complied with, and that the management of the school is proper in all respects;
- (b) examine the punishment-book;
- (c) bring any special cases to the notice of the Inspector-General ;and
- (d) see that no person is illegally detained in the school.

(2) If any member of a Committee of Visitors so appointed fails or neglects, during a period of six consecutive months, to visit the School and assist in the discharge of the duties aforesaid, he shall cease to be a member of such Committee,

24. If, in exercise of the power conferred by section 17, the ²[Provincial Government] appoints a Board of Management for any Reformatory School, such Board shall have the power and perform the functions of the Superintendent under sections 18 to 22, both inclusive; and the license mentioned in section 18 may be under the hand of their chairman; and they shall be deemed to be the guidance of the youthful offenders detained in such school.

Power to deal in other ways with youthful offenders including girls.

- (a) discharged after due admonition, or
- (b) delivered to his parent or to his guardian or nearest adult relative, on such parent, guardian or relative executing a bond with or without sureties, as the Court may require, to be responsible for the good behaviour of the youthful offender for any period not exceeding twelve months.

(2) For the purposes of this section the term "youthful offender" shall include a girl.

(3) The powers conferred on the Court by this section shall be exercised only by courts empowered by or under section 8.

(4) When any youthful offender is convicted by a Court not empowered to Act under this section and the Court is of opinion that the powers conferred by this section should be exercised in respect of such youthful offender, it may record such opinion and submit the proceedings and forward the youthful offender to the District Magistrate to whom such Court is subordinate.

(5) The District Magistrate to whom the proceedings are so submitted may thereupon make such order or pass such sentence as he might have made or passed if the case had originally been tried by him.

32. When a youthful offender during his period of detention in a Reformatory School is again convicted by a Criminal Court, the sentence of such Court shall commence at once, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in section 397 of the [¹Code of Criminal Procedure, 1882, but the Court shall forthwith report the matter to the ²[Provincial Government], which shall have power to deal with the matter in any way in which it thinks fit.
