THE WEST PAKISTAN CONTROL OF GOONDAS ORDINANCE, 1959.

(W. P. Ordinance No. XXXV of 1959)

[4th June, 1959]

An

to consolidate and amend the law relating to the control of disorderly persons commonly known as goondas in the Province of West Pakistan.

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the law relating to the control of disorderly persons commonly known as goondas in the Province of West Pakistan;

Preamble.

NOW, THEREFORE, in pursuance of the Presidential Proclamation of the seventh day of October, 1958, and in exercise of all powers enabling him in that behalf, the Governor of West Pakistan is pleased to make and promulgate the following Ordinance:

1. (1) This Ordinance may be called the West Pakistan Control of Goondas Ordinance, 1959.

Short title and extent.

¹[(2) It extends to the whole of the ²[Province of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa] except the Tribal Areas.]

³[1 A. In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions shall have the meanings here by respectively assigned to them, that is to say –

Definitions.

(a) “Government” means the Government of West Pakistan;

(b) “Prescribed” means prescribed by rules made under this Ordinance; and

(c) “Tribunal” means the Tribunal constituted under section 2.]

2. (1) In every district there shall be a Tribunal to deal with cases under this Ordinance arising within the district.

Constitution of Tribunal.

(2) The Tribunal shall consist of the officer holding for the time being the office of the District Magistrate or any Magistrate of the first class especially empowered by Government in this behalf.

¹. Subs. for the words “Federal Capital and the Special Areas”, the words “Tribal Areas”, subs. by W.P. Ord.No. XI of 1968.

². Subs. for the words Province of West Pakistan by Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Adapt of Laws Order 1975 and then substituted by the word “Khyber Pakhtunkhwa” vide Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Act No.IV of 2011.

³. Section IA, ins. by W.P. Ord. No. XI of 1968.

3. (1) For the purpose of conducting inquiries under this Ordinance, the Tribunal shall have all the powers of a District Magistrate under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, for issuing summons and warrants, for compelling attendance of witnesses and production of documents for the examination of persons complained against and witnesses, and for issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses. Powers of Tribunal.
- (2) Proceedings before the Tribunal shall be deemed to be judicial proceedings.
4. The Tribunal shall for purposes of section 480 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, be deemed to be a court. Contempt proceedings.
5. (1) No Tribunal shall take cognizance of a case under this Ordinance unless Cognizance of cases by Tribunal.
- (a) (i) the person complained against resides, or
- (ii) the acts mentioned in clauses (a) to (l) of section 13 are alleged to have been committed, within the local limits of its jurisdiction; and
- ¹[(b) The Officer incharge of the Police station within the jurisdiction whereof such place as aforesaid lies or in areas which are not within the jurisdiction of any Police station, the Extra Assistant Commissioner within whose jurisdiction such place lies or any other officer authorized in this behalf by the District Magistrate, lays information with the Tribunal under sub-section (2).]
- (2) The information shall be signed by the police officer concerned and shall briefly set out –
- (a) the practices with which the person complained against is charged;
- (b) instances, with details of time and place of such practice;
- (c) a statement of any relevant general repute in which such person is held and any other ground on which the information is based;
- (d) names and other particulars of witnesses who will be produced to support the allegations contained in the information; and
- (e) prayer as regards action to be taken against him.

¹. In section 5, in sub-section (1), clause (b), subs, by W.P. Ord. No. XXII of 1965.

6. On receipt of information under section 5, the Tribunal may summon the person complained against to appear before it, and shall, as soon as he appears before it, supply him with a copy of the information laid against him: Summoning of the person.

Provided that the Tribunal may, for reasons to be recorded, in the very first instance or at any later stage of the inquiry, instead of issuing summons, issue a warrant, non-bailable or bailable, in such sum as may appear to it reasonable, for the arrest of the aforesaid person and his production before the Tribunal –

- (i) if it is satisfied that the said person is hiding himself to evade service of the summons, or
- (ii) if he does not appear in spite of the service of the summons, or
- (iii) if it is, for any other reason, satisfied that such action is necessary.

7. If the Tribunal has reason to believe that a person against whom a warrant of arrest has been issued under section 6, has absconded, or is concealing himself so that the warrant cannot be executed, it may – Procedure where a person absconds or conceals himself.

- (a) send a report to a Magistrate having jurisdiction in the area where the present complained against ordinarily resides or has his property or is present, and the said Magistrate shall take proceedings under sections 87, 88 and 89 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, in respect of such person and his property as if the warrant were a warrant issued by the said Magistrate; or
- (b) by order notified in the Gazette, direct such person to appear before it, at such place and within such period as may be specified in the order; and if such person omits to comply with the directions, he shall, unless he proves that it was not possible for him to comply therewith and that he had, at the first possible opportunity within the period sent information to the Tribunal of the reason which rendered compliance therewith impossible and of his whereabouts, be deemed to have evaded compliance with the order.

8. (1) The Tribunal may, when the person complained against appears before it, take from him a bond, with or without sureties, for his appearance during the inquiry or when called upon, as the case may be, and may also, having regard to the nature of the information laid against him, require him to furnish a bond, with one or more sureties, in such sum as the Tribunal may think fit, to be of good behaviour until the conclusion of the inquiry and may direct that he be detained in custody until such bond is executed, or in default of execution, until the inquiry is concluded. Appearance before Tribunal.

(2) The Tribunal may, for reasons to be recorded, instead of taking a bond for the appearance of the person complained against, order his detention till the conclusion of the inquiry in such prison as it thinks suitable:

Provided that such detention shall not exceed two months unless his case has been referred to the Commissioner and the latter has agreed to such detention.

9. Where two or more persons are associated together with regard to any matter covered by the allegations contained in the information laid in respect of them, to an extent which in the opinion of the Tribunal justifies such a course, the inquiry into the matter with regard to which they are associated together may be conducted against all, or any of them jointly. Joint proceedings.

10. The Tribunal shall proceed to inquire into the truth or otherwise of the information upon which action has been taken, and for that purpose may record such evidence as may appear necessary, following in all such cases, the procedure prescribed in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, for conducting trials and recording evidence in summons cases, but subject to the special provisions of this Ordinance. Proceedings before Tribunal.

11. Whenever any Tribunal, after having heard and recorded the whole or any part of the evidence in an inquiry, ceases to exercise jurisdiction there in, and is succeeded by another Tribunal, which has and which exercises such jurisdiction, the Tribunal so succeeding may act on the evidence so recorded by its predecessor or partly recorded by its predecessor and partly recorded by itself or may resummons the witnesses and re-commence the inquiry. Tribunal may act on the evidence recorded by its predecessor.

12. ¹[(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law for the time being in force, the Tribunal may receive and consider evidence of general repute, of previous convictions, or of previous occasions on which the person complained against was bound over to keep the peace or to be of good behaviour.] Orders by Tribunal.

(2) The Tribunal may grant immunity from prosecution for any offence other than that of giving false evidence to any witness appearing in any inquiry under this Ordinance in respect of any matter relevant to the inquiry.

(3) The Tribunal may direct any Magistrate having jurisdiction in the area to take such steps as may be necessary to protect the life and property of any person who has given or is required to give evidence in any inquiry under this Ordinance.

²[13. If the Tribunal is satisfied, as a result of inquiry held under this Ordinance, that the person complained against — Declaration of Goondas.
