- (i) to execute work in consultation with the Authority;
- (ii) to take over and maintain any of the works and services in that area; and
- (iii) to provide any amenity in relation to the land which in the opinion of the Authority ought to be provided.

(2) The expenditure incurred on the execution of any scheme or on the taking over of maintenance of any work, under this section, shall be borne as may be agreed between the Authority and Government Agency concerned and in the event of disagreement, as may be determined by Government.

19. Power to execute scheme.---(1)Where the Authority is satisfied that any direction given by it under sub-section (1) of section 18 with regard to any scheme has not been carried out by the Government Agency concerned, the Authority may itself undertake any work for the execution of that scheme and the cost thereof shall be borne as may be agreed between the Authority and Government Agency concerned and in the event of disagreement as may be determined by Government.

(2) Where any work is undertaken by the Authority under sub-section (1), it shall be deemed to have, for the purposes of execution of such work, all the powers which may be exercised, under any law for the time being in force by Government Agency concerned.

CHAPTER-VI GENERAL

20. Directions by Government---The Authority shall, in discharging its functions, act and be guided by such directions as Government may give to it from time to time.

21. Controlled Area---The Authority may, by notification in the official Gazette, declare any locality to be a Controlled Area, for the purposes of this Act and may issue in respect of such locality such directions as it considers fit and appropriate and do all such things as may be necessary for the prevention of haphazard growth, encroachments and unauthorized construction in such area.

22. Borrowing money---(1)The Authority shall be deemed to be a local authority for the purpose of borrowing money and any scheme or project prepared or undertaken by the Authority shall be deemed to be "work" as defined in section 2 of the Local Authorities Loan Act, 1914 ( Act IX of 1914):

Provided that no local or foreign loan shall be obtained by the Authority without the previous sanction of Government.

(2) The Authority may, in consultation with the Finance Department of Government, borrow money or raise funds by issuing bonds or debentures or otherwise for carrying out the purposes of this Act, in the prescribed manner.

CHAPTER-VII FINANCE, ACCOUNTS AND AUDIT

23. Revolving Fund---(1)There shall be established a fund to be known as Revolving Fund which shall vest in the Authority and shall be utilized by the Authority in connection with its functions under this Act including payment of salaries and other remuneration to the members, officers, servants, experts and consultants of the Authority.

- (2) The Revolving Fund shall consist of -
  - (i) grants and loans made by Government;
  - (ii) all moneys received from Federal Government or any international agency by way of grants, loan, advances or otherwise;
  - (iii) all fees, rates and charges received by the Authority under this Act;
  - (iv) all money received by the Authority from the disposal of lands, buildings and other properties moveable and immovable;
  - (v) proceeds from the self financing schemes; and
  - (vi) all other sums receivable by the Authority.

(3) In case of deficit revenue of the Authority, Government shall provide from its own revenues or from any other source, such sum as may be necessary for the efficient performance of functions of the Authority under this Act.

(4) The Authority may keep in current account of any scheduled bank such sum as may be prescribed and any amount in excess of the said amount shall be invested in Government securities, Government sponsored saving schemes or in such manner as may be determined by the Authority.

Explanation.---For the purpose of this sub-section, Government includes Federal Government.

24. Rates and fees.---(1) With the previous consent of Government, adequate funds may be raised by the Authority from time to time, to meet the cost of its schemes by imposing rates, fees and other charges.

(2) The rates, fees and other charges shall be such as to provide sufficient revenues-

- (i) to cover the operating expenses including taxes and other maintenance and depreciation charges;
- (ii) to meet repayments on long term indebtedness to the extent that such repayments exceed the provision of the depreciation; and
- (iii) to finance the normal year to year extension of any of such schemes and to provide a reasonable portion of the cost of future major expansion of such schemes.

25. Accounts.---The Authority shall maintain proper accounts and other relevant records and prepare annual statement of accounts in such form as may be prescribed.

26. Budget.---The Authority shall prepare every year, in such form and at such time as may be prescribed, a budget in respect of the financial year next ensuing showing the estimated receipt and expenditure of the Authority and shall submit the same to Government for approval. If Government does not approve or modify the budget within thirty days of its receipt, the budget as prepared by the Authority shall be deemed to be the approved budget.

27. Audit.---The accounts of the Authority shall be audited annually by duly qualified auditors appointed by the Authority in addition to the pre-audit by Government Auditors.

CHAPTER-VIII PENALTY AND PROCEDURE

28. Notice and authorization.---The Authority or Government Agency, as the case may be, shall authorize an officer or officers under its administrative control:

- (a) to issue legal notices for violation or commission of any offence under this Act, rules or regulations;
- (b) to take such measures and actions for compliance of directions contained in the notices issued restraining violation or commission of any offence under this Act, rules or regulations; and
- (c) to initiate legal proceedings or defend any legal proceedings initiated against the Authority or Government Agency, as the case may be, attend court proceedings and represent the concerned Authority or Government Agency as the case may be.

29. Cognizance of offence.---No court shall take cognizance of an offence under this Act except on a complaint in writing made by the Authority or an officer or a person generally or specifically authorized by the Authority or on a complaint filed by an affected citizen.

(2) The Authority on its own motion, or an officer or any other person generally or specially authorized by the authority on his own motion, or on the complaint of any affected citizen, may institute any suit or initiate prosecution or any other legal action against a person committing an offence under this Act.

30. Offences.---All the offences specified in Fourth Schedule to the <sup>1</sup>[Khyber Pakhtunkhwa] Local Government Ordinance, 2001 (<sup>2</sup>[Khyber Pakhtunkhwa] Ord. No. XIV of 2001), shall also be deemed to be offences under this Act and shall be punishable with the same punishment as provided therein.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, an act (not provided specifically in this Act) in contravention of the provisions of this Act and rules or regulations issued from time to time by Government or the PHA, shall be punishable with imprisonment or fine or both as may be deemed appropriate by the court of competent jurisdiction.

31. Compounding of offences.---Subject to the provisions of section 345 of the Criminal Procedure Code, 1898 (V of 1898), except as otherwise provided, the Authority or Government Agency, as the case may be, or an officer or any other person generally or specially authorized by the Authority in this behalf, may, at any time or after the commission of the offence but before the conclusion of proceedings in the court, compound any offence punishable under this Act.

32. Rights of citizens.---Nothing contained in section 29 shall restrict or limit the right of the citizens or residents of a local area to bring any suit or other legal proceedings against the Authority or Government Agency, as the case may be, its officers or other functionaries violating the rights available to them under any law for the time being in force.

CHAPTER IX MISCELLANEOUS

33. Annual report.---The Authority shall prepare for every year a report of its activities during that year and submit the report to Government in such form and on or before such date, as may be prescribed.

34. Recovery of dues.---Any sum due to the Authority from or any sum wrongly paid by the Authority to, any person under this Act, shall be recoverable as arrears of land revenue.

35. Conversion of property to a different use.---Any conversion of property to a different use or purpose than the one provided under a scheme, by a person or agency without the previous approval of the Authority in writing, shall be punishable with a fine which may extend to rupees five hundred per day from the date of its conversion till the default continues or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with both.
